Bad Money in Circulation.

Sam Webb, a colored youth, went to the confectionery store of Mrs. Love, at 337 Salem avenue, yesterday and bought a cake worth 25 cents and tendered her in payment a raised $10 bill, which proved to be only one dollar. Mrs.
Love gave him $9.75 in change. After the boy had left the store a short while she discovered she had been duped and notified Chief Terry, who, upon her description, arrested the above named boy.
After his arrest he was positively identified by Mrs. Love as the party that passed the bill. The note was raised by scratching on the large figures and pasting on the smaller ones. The deception can only be noticed by careful scrutiny. This is the second time a bill of this description has been passed recently.

John S. Edwards,

of Adams, N. Y., makes the following sworn statement: Kenyon & Thomas: This is to certify what I know of your wonderful medicine, Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, will do in cases of pneumonia. Last winter my mother, who is 75 years of age, was sick unto death with pneumonia. Both lungs were badly involved. The attending physician said she must die. As a last resort we commenced using your Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, applying it freely and thoroughly to the chest, keeping the lungs covered with hot flannels.
She soon began to improve and in twelve hours the crisis was past and she was out of danger and is alive and well today. Your great remedy saved her life.

JOHN S. EDWARDS.

Application was made for a license for a barroom and to retail liquors by O.

proposed to conduct the business was not suitable.

attorney for the Washington Club Land Company, an order was entered exoner-ating part of the lands of said company

The case of C. F. Christian vs. N.
Hockman, an appeal from a justice's

A NOTED FRENCH RIDER.

Stephane, the Man Who Holds the Twenty-four Hour World's Record.

Stephane, the fast French wheelman, who, on the Buffalo Bill Velodrome track, Paris, broke the twenty-four hour bicycle world's record of 413 miles and 1,315 yards by going 418 miles and 664 yards in a fine specimen of the athlete. He is 5 ft. 10 in. high, has a well developed chest, large arms, swarthy complexion and enormous legs. He is an exceedingly ungraceful rider.
His method is to bend his head low down and hump his back up in a ludicrous fashion.
His stroke, though powerful, is very laborious, and on his machine he looks very little like a record breaker.

A Good Shortstop.

Thomas Corcoran, of the Brooklyn team, is considered one of the most brilliant and generally useful shortstops in the big League. His work this season has been altogether first class.

Corcoran was born at New Haven Jan.
4, 1869. He came into prominence as a member of the Mount Pleasant, a local club. In 1887 he played his first professional engagement with the Lynn club.

Next year he went to Wilkesbarre, and in 1889 returned to his native city.

When the Players' league was organized Corcoran was engaged to play shortstop for Hanlon's Pittsburgh team, and it was then that he jumped into national favor. When the Players' league disbanded he joined the Philadelphia Athletics and played with them last year. Last winter, when the League and Association consolidated, Tommy was assigned to the Brooklyn. Corcoran is 5 ft. 7 1/2 in. tall and weighs 160 pounds when in playing form.

The Man Who Broke Page's Record.

Michael F. Sweeney was never thought to have in him the material for a record breaker, and when he surpassed W. Boyd Page's world's record, at the New York Athletic club's recent games at Traver's island, the audience was violently surprised. His first attempt and failure elic-

SWEENEY'S GREAT JUMP.

ited no comment. It was expected. Sweeney is a member of the Xavier Athletic association. He is an exceedingly popular and unassuming young man. Sweeney is rather tall and quite slender in appearance. But he is one mass of muscle and sinew. His wiry legs indicate their wonderful strength.
Page's record for the high jump, which had withstood all attempts to eclipse it, was 6 ft. 4 in. Sweeney cleared the bar without even grazing it at a height of 6 ft.
4 1/2 in., thus earning the title of champion of the world.

Italian Rings.

Rings of Italian workmanship are remarkably beautiful. Venice particularly excelled in this art. In the Londeshorough collection is a fine specimen. The four claws of the outer ring, in open work, support the setting of a sharply pointed pyramidal diamond, such as was then coveted for writing on glass. The shank bears a fanciful resemblance to a serpent swallowing a bird, of which only the claws connecting the face remain in sight.

It was with a similar ring Raleigh wrote the words on a window pane, "Fain would I rise, but that I fear to fall," to which Queen Elizabeth added, "If thy heart fall free, do not rise at all," an implied encouragement which led him on to fortune.
